

Match the beginning of the sentences to their endings.

While everyone was able to do the online activity,

I was not able to join the first session as it was not recorded in your system.

The second session was not boring at all.

whereas the others had to see the teacher's shared screen which at times was not totally clear.

Books were another issue, the people who got it delivered on time worked without problems

I was the only one who couldn't access the site since I was working with a smartphone.

I thought there was a problem with the platform.

On the contrary, we had lots of interesting activities.

We answered all the pages in our books

we could listen to all the audios clearly

Whilst the videos were a big problem,

But in fact, the professor didn't even create an account for my email.

Although I had made my payment before the due date, but on the other hand, we were expecting for extra activities to get more practice.
