

THERE IS AND THERE ARE

Look at the picture, then fill in the blank with there is/there are/a/an/some/any/many/much appropriately. Change the form of the sentence to be negative or interrogative sentence when necessary.

Look, (1) (2) people at the market today. I see (3)
(4) lady who sells (5) flowers in the middle of the market. She is selling
(6) flowers to the lady who brings (7) dog. (8) (9) greengrocer at the front right side of the market. (10) (11) lady carrying a baby, and she's talking to the lady who is showing her (12) vegetables that she has bought.

I want to eat (13) fish. I have been eating too (14) meat lately.
(15) (16) fish stall here? Oh, (17) (18) fishwife selling some fish across from the greengrocer. What kind of fish that she sells? Although
(19) that (20) fish in her stall, but I think (21)
(22) salmon, white fish and shell fish.

I need to buy (23) bread too. (24) (25) bread stall behind the greengrocer. Oh, my mother wants to cook (26) beef soup for my father today. Let's see.. (27) (28) butcher here? Yes, I see (29)
(30) meat stall by the fish stall.

After finish shopping, I'm going to meet my friend and drink some coffee with her.
(31) (32) coffee shop at the back of the market. They sell (33) delicious sandwiches and cakes too. Too bad (34) (35) ice cream parlour here, because I want to bring home (36) ice cream for my sister.