PROVERBS

Match the proverbs

Honesty is the best policy

Better to arrive late than not arrive at all.

Don't judge a book by its cover

It's always better to say the truth than to lie

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step

Don't gauge a person's ability or character based on how they look

The early bird catches the worm

Instead of complaining of how big or hard something is, begin on it and it is the first step to finishing it.

Better late than never

The one who acts the earliest has an advantage over others

Match the proverbs

Clothes do not make the man

A person with a bad work ethic will blame others or his equipment rather than blame his or her poor skills

When life gives you lemons, make lemonade

A person may wear fancy clothes but he may not be rich. A person may wear rags but she may not be poor

A bad workman blames his tools

Those with the least talent and knowledge usually speak the most, speak the loudest, and create the most fuss so that they would be noticed

Empty vessels make the most noise

Turn your bad luck into something useful.
