

ADJECTIVES DESCRIBING PERSONALITY

1. Insert the missing word to complete the sentences. Use words from the box.

organised dishonest considerate impatient mean polite patient impolite lazy adventurous honest

- 1 If people are _____, they don't always tell the truth.
- 2 I can't believe you ate all the chips! What about the rest of us? That was very _____ of you.
- 3 He's very _____. He never forgets to say thank you or hold the door for the person that enters after him.
- 4 Mary is so _____! She's good at making plans, she usually completes her tasks on time, her desk is always tidy and she knows where her things are.
- 5 Henry swears and yells and never talks nicely to people; he's so _____.
- 6 Nick is very _____. He'll never do anything without thinking of others first. He doesn't want to hurt anybody's feelings.
- 7 No wonder you didn't pass your exam when you're so _____. You never do your homework and you watch TV all the time!
- 8 A: Harry had to wait an hour for Paula to get ready for the party. But he didn't mind waiting at all!
B: He must be very _____!
- 9 I'm not very _____ – I don't want to paragliding or canyoning. I'd just like a nice vacation at the seaside.
- 10 A: What's taking Shelly so long? She's been at that clothes shop for ages!
B: Don't be so _____! She only went in ten minutes ago. She needs a nice dress for the party on Friday.
- 11 When Kelly went to secondary school, she was always _____ about her marks. She never lied to her parents.