

Do you have rude and teenage children living in your house? Have you ever secretly wanted to throw them out? A Spanish couple, Mr. and Mrs. Serrano, from Zaragoza in Spain, have done exactly that. Maria and her husband Mariano lived with their two sons, David, 20 and Mariano, 18.

"The situation was impossible," said Maria. "We were always arguing, our children were our house like a hotel and they weren't anything. Also they weren't studying, or looking for work. They were complaining all the time and us. They didn't respect us. I love my children but in the end it was ruining our lives. "

So Maria and Mariano asked their sons to leave the family home in Zaragoza in Spain. But the two boys didn't want to go. Then, Mr. and Mrs. Serrano took an unusual decision - they went to .

Normally, under Spanish law parents do not have the right to make their children leave home. But in this case the judge decided that the situation in the Serrano family was " ". He gave Mr. and Mrs. Serrano the right to tell their children to go.

What did the Serrano's boys do? In fact they didn't go very far from home. The oldest boy David went to live with his girlfriend and has just started work in her father's construction company. The younger son has rented a room near the family home (his mother paid the first month's rent only).
