Use "colour" adjectives to complete the sentences.

1. There is no _____ bread left. Can you buy a loaf on your way home?
2. Gerald gave me such a _____ look as I was passing him. Something evidently had gone wrong.
3. Such things can happen only once in a _____ moon.
4. Cousin Sarah is _____ with envy because her elder sister has been given a gold ring as a birthday present.
5. When I mentioned the episode to Chris, he became as _____ as a beetroot.
6. Our grandparents appeared out of the _____ early in the morning. We never expected them to arrive in the middle of December.
7. I have always known Mark as a brave young man and never thought he could be a coward. But, alas, he is _____: you can't trust him. He will easily show a _____ feather.
8. Laura was born with _____ fingers. Her flower garden is fantastic.
9. I don't think your _____ humour is to the point here.
10. George came out into the corridor. His face and hands were as _____ as coal.
11. Your words about Alec's "masterpiece" were like a _____ rug to the bull.
12. There was a beautiful tablecloth on the table. It was as _____ as snow.

LIVEWORKSHEETS