Choose the sense or senses that the sentence appeals to.

The neighbor's dog barking kept us awake all night. 	The pizza from Harris Teeter was greasy.
Ellie lit the candle scented like vanilla. 	The chiming of the bell made Mrs. Witt's class realize it is time to clean up.
Whitney did not enjoy the new minty toothpaste her mother bought. 	The piney scent reminded me of camping in the forest.
The cold wind made me wish we could have recess inside. 	There was an awful odor coming from my brother's lunchbox.
While walking on the trail, Caroline and Rebekah heard the screeching of the owl and observed the vibrant colors of the flowers blooming. 	After planting the carrots, Claire noticed the green tips had been chewed to the ground.
Neil's car came to a screeching halt, when he came to the red light. 	The butter began to sizzle and pop in the skillet. 