RELATIVE CLAUSES
EXERCISES 5

1. Add the missing relative (who or which), but make a contact-clause where possible. In that case write -----.
   a. I know a man _____ eats paper.
   b. The man _____ you want has just left.
   c. It's a kind of paper _____ you can eat.
   d. The lady _____ was here yesterday has gone out.
   e. He eats only the paper _____ his wife makes.
   f. The magazine _____ you lent me was very old.
   g. His wife is a woman _____ loves a joke.
   h. The chair _____ was broken is now mended.
   i. He's one of the people _____ I really like.
   j. The old man _____ lives next door has just died.
   k. You can write on the paper _____ she makes.
   l. Women _____ work in hospitals are admired.
   m. Has this paper got a flavour _____ pleases you?
   n. The cigarette _____ you are smoking is a Player's.
   o. Have you met anyone else _____ does such tricks?
   p. The girl _____ lives next door is very pretty.
   q. I'm looking for someone _____ I can trust.
   r. The fish _____ I ate yesterday was not so good.
   s. I want to find a man _____ will lend me money.
   t. The street _____ leads to the school is very wide.

2. Rewrite these sentences omitting the relative pronoun. Other changes are necessary.
   a. This is the box in which I had put my English books. This is the box I had put my English books in.
   b. The man with whom she had lunch yesterday is her boss.
   _____
   c. The knife with which you are cutting the meat belonged to my great grandmother.
   _____
   d. The company for which he works has gone bankrupt.
   _____
   e. We didn't recognize the people at whom we were looking.
   _____
   f. I can't remember the person from whom I took the money.
   _____

3. Complete the sentences with relative pronouns (who, which, that, whose, where). If there is more than one possibility, write them as they appear in the brackets with / and no spaces, as in the example.
   a. Christopher Columbus was the sailor who/that discovered America.
   b. This food has an ingredient _____ is very sweet.
   c. The lady _____ son plays football with me is the headteacher of my school.
   d. The house _____ I was born is now for sale.
   e. Antonio Banderas, _____ is married to Melanie Griffith, was born in Málaga.
   f. D.H. Lawrence, _____ was an English author, wrote many interesting novels.
   g. London, _____ is on the river Thames, is the capital of the United Kingdom.
   h. The Prado Museum, _____ is in Madrid, is one of the best art galleries in the world.

4. Join each pair of sentences with a relative clause. Omit the relative pronouns wherever possible.
   a. Last night we met a man. He's a millionaire. Last night we met a man who/that is a millionaire.
   b. Yesterday we found a wallet. It was empty.

      _____

   c. We like cereals. Well, if they are wholemeal.

      _____

   d. Michaelangelo was a famous artist. He painted the Sistine Chapel.

      _____

   e. She's bought a CD. It is broken.

      _____

   f. I had won some money. I spent it on a new bike.

      _____

5. Join each pair of sentences using non-defining relative clauses. Write two possibilities as in the exaample.
   a. Madonna is a popular pop singer and actress. She was born in the USA.
      Madonna, who was born in the USA, is a popular pop singer and actress.
      Madonna, who is a popular pop singer and actress, was born in the USA.
   b. My grandparents live in Córdoba. They are school teachers.

      _____

   c. Victoria Station is situated near Buckingham Palace. It is one of the most famous railway stations in London.

      _____

   d. "Guernica" was painted by Picasso. It is permanently exhibited in Madrid.

      _____

   e. My friend Luis has lived in many exotic countries. He works for the government.

      _____

   f. Sharon is a wonderful cook. She's married with two children.

      _____