Read the text. Choose one of the variants

People all over the world know Maxwell House Coffee brand. Here is a bit of history.

In 1873, a grocery salesman named Joel Cheek became interested coffee and made his own unique blend.

Realizing that he a fine

brew,

he decided to sell it. One of the South's hotels, the Maxwell House, liked his coffee and began to serve it to guests; hence the name Maxwell House Coffee.

In 1907, on returning from a bear hunt in Mississippi, President Theodore Roosevelt was a guest of the Ladies Hermitage

He

Association at Andrew homestead in Nashville, Tennessee.

a cup of Maxwell House Coffee'. Upon being offered a

