

A top-down view of a group of people sitting around a table, engaged in a meeting or study session. The word "ENGLISH" is written in large, bold, black letters across the center of the table. Various items like laptops, notebooks, pens, and coffee cups are scattered around the participants.

Every year a lot of people come to Great Britain to learn English. They have a pleasant stay there and come back with better knowledge of English.

First of all, try to learn about teachers' qualification. They should know what students need to learn, and be able to help them learn it. Moreover, the school provide students with necessary material and the latest methodological and logical developments.

most important question is accommodation. A good school always pays this serious attention. Not less important is that the school must provide a comfortable place for students to communicate, offering them meals, coffee, etc. Some schools even have a cafe for socializing among students and staff.

inal way in which schools can help students is by making sure that they enjoy ves outside school time. In addition, it is part of a school's responsibilities to students about places to see in the town.
