Reading comprehension exercise

- Read the paragraphs below and choose which paragraph talks about which picture.

Riding a bicycle is real fun, but there is nothing like feeling the air in your face when you accelerate.

Sometimes he goes to work by train, but this time he decided to get a taxi outside the airport.

This is so nice. You can see far away in the distance. The blue sky and the ocean.

You can travel very fast from one town to another. We don't get hold in traffic and we can enjoy the Journey.

I would rather use this on weekends than going to work with it. Plus, it wouldn't be nice to get to work sweating.

I always get nervous before takeoff. On the other hand, it makes distance very short. We can go to another continent in hours.

It looks like a train and we can use this instead of waiting for the bus at the bus stop.

I like flying on a plane, but there is one thing that I don't like very much. The seats are too small so I prefer to travel by coach.

I wish I had a car because when it is raining, it's so difficult to be there at the bus stop.

LIVEWORKSHEETS