Passive voice

I. Choose the suitable option to complete the sentence.

1. The English grammar point … is explained/… was explained by our teacher yesterday.
2. How many houses … are destroyed/… were destroyed by the storm last night?
3. The school … was moved/… moved to the higher area.
4. My father … is watered/… waters this flower every morning.
5. Harvard University … was founded/… is founded in 1636.
6. A lot of phone calls … is received/… are received every day.

II. Decide whether the following sentences are Correct (C) or Incorrect (I) in terms of grammar.

1. The result of the exam is always announce in June.
2. Is English spoken in Canada?
3. Yesterday, my wallet is taken by a thief.
4. When was the tests marked by the teacher?
5. Tim was offer some cookies by his classmate.
6. I'm afraid, smoking isn't allowed here.
7. The storm was destroyed many buildings last week.
8. Is The Temple of Literature located in the centre of Hanoi?

III. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the given verbs.

1. J. K. Rowling (write) …….. her first book at the age of six.
2. Nowadays, Harvard University (consider) …….. one of the best universities in America.
3. My sister (offer) …….. a scholarship to Oxford University last year.
4. Many famous professors and lecturers (teach) …….. here in 1946.
5. Many flowers and trees (grow) …….. around my school every year.
6. Why (the floor/ not clean) …….. yesterday?

IV. Rewrite the following sentences in passive voice.

1. They reconstructed the temple in 1903.

…….

2. Thousands of people visit Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum every day.

…….

3. I don't invite her to my birthday party.

…….

4. They built the Khue Van Pavilion inside the Temple of Literature.

…….

5. Why do many students visit the Temple of Literature before their exams?

…….

The end

LIVEWORKSHEETS