

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Add commas when necessary, do NOT use 'that' and omit the relative pronoun when possible.

1. Ann started modelling five years ago. She was only thirteen years old then.
Ann ..... started modelling five years ago.
2. Let's go to the Chinese restaurant. Paul recommended it.
Let's go to the Chinese restaurant .....
3. That woman is an artist. She lives next to us.
That woman ..... is an artist.
4. The car is mine. Its tyres are flat
The car ..... is mine.
5. I met a boy while I was on holiday. He works as a taxi driver.
I met a boy ..... while I was on holiday.
6. Have you seen the jacket? I was wearing it yesterday.
Have you seen the jacket .....?
7. I know a man. His wife is an astronaut
I know a man .....
8. I visited the Science Museum. You could touch everything there.
I visited the Science Museum .....
9. They're talking about the thieves. The police arrested them yesterday.
They're talking about the thieves .....
10. The woman left her bag here. You came with her yesterday.
The woman ..... left her bag here.
11. They live in London. It is a very busy city.
They live in ..... is a very busy city.
12. Peter is my best friend. His house is near yours
Peter ..... is my best friend.
13. The skirt is the blue one. It fits you best
The skirt ..... is the blue one.
14. Do you remember the day? We went to London then.
Do you remember the day .....to London?
15. Maxime's Restaurant is really expensive. It is round the corner.
Maxime's Restaurant ..... is really expensive.