

SIMPLE PRESENT OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS?

LET'S SEE!

Simple Present

Use:

- Habits and routines
e.g. I wake up at 7 every day.
- Things that are true (facts)
e.g. Argentina is in South America.
- Permanent situations
e.g. I live in Martinez.

Present Continuous

Use:

- Something happening now
e.g. I am studying for the test now.
- Something happening at the present
but not necessary at the moment
e.g. She's learning Chinese at school.
- Temporary situations
e.g. They're staying in a great hotel in Mexico.

Simple Present

Form:

(Aff) Subject + verb + rest ...

e.g. I wake up at 7 every day.

(Neg) Subject + Auxiliary Verb + Verb + rest ...

e.g. I don't wake up at 7 every day.

(Int) Auxiliary verb + Subject + Verb + rest ... + ?

e.g. Do I wake up at 7 every day?.

Present Continuous

Form:

(Aff) Subject + verb 'to be' + verb-ing + rest ...

e.g. They are learning English now.

(Neg) Subject + verb 'to be' + Verb-ing + rest ...

e.g. They are not learning English now.

(Int) Verb 'to be' + Subject + Verb-ing + rest ... + ?

e.g. Are they learning English now?

Simple Present

Remember:

- Auxiliary verbs Interrogative:

DO / DOES

- Auxiliary verbs Negative:

DON'T / DOESN'T

IMPORTANT:

WE ADD AN S TO THE VERB IF THE SUBJECT IS 'HE', 'SHE' OR 'IT'. WHEN WE USE DOES WE DON'T ADD THE S TO THE VERB.

Present Continuous

Remember:

HERE WE DON'T USE AUXILIARY VERBS. BUT IT IS IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER THAT:

AM

I

IS

HE / SHE / IT

ARE

YOU/WE/THEY
