

Two Parents genes are crossed below. Black (B) is dominant to white (b). Rough (R) is dominant to smooth (r).

BbRr

x

BbRr

	B	b
R	B R	bR
r	Br	br

	B	b
R	B R	bR
r	Br	br

	B R	Br	bR	br
B R Br
bR
br

Black (B) is dominant to white (b). Rough (R) is dominant to smooth (r).

Using the punnett square. Answer using a fraction. For example, 4/16 or 1/16.

- a. What is the probability of producing guinea pigs with black, rough fur?

- b. What is the probability of producing guinea pigs with white, rough fur?

- b. What is the probability of producing guinea pigs with black, smooth fur?

- c. What is the probability of producing guinea pigs with white, smooth fur?