Questions 19 to 22 refer to the following text.

One night, Sheila uploaded images onto her website. She had not finished it when everything suddenly went dark in the house. She took her deep breath. The thought of spending the night alone at home spooked her.

Sheila stood speechless in the darkness. She didn't know what she would do. Then, an idea came into her mind. She bought a torch several days ago. She would look for the torch in the drawer in her kitchen.

Cautiously, she grasped in the dark, trying to find her way to the drawer with torch. She normally knew her way around the house. However, she saw nothing but darkness at the moment. As a result, she suffered a few knocks and bumps before she found her way to the kitchen.

Arriving at the kitchen, she opened the drawer. She took the torch and flipped the switch.
