

1) A) Let's watch a short film. Click on play.

B) What do we know about the plot? Complete the sentences. Click on the square to add a tick.

The kitten lived in...	<input type="checkbox"/> an alley.	<input type="checkbox"/> a train platform.
The pitbull...	<input type="checkbox"/> was a happy dog with a family.	<input type="checkbox"/> was forced to fight.
The kitten and the pitbull...	<input type="checkbox"/> managed to escape.	<input type="checkbox"/> decided to stay.

2) A) Complete the story using the present simple or continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

When the story starts, the kitten _____ (steal) a fish from the market. It _____ (live) in a big city. Its only friend is a teddy bear.

One day a man _____ (arrive) with a pit-bull. It is not as bad as it seems but the kitten _____ (show) the dog that he is strong enough to fight it.

Later, the kitten _____ (play) with a soda cap when the dog's owner _____ (tie) the pit-bull to a chain. The kitten _____ (invite) the dog to play with him but it can't move well. The dog turns out to be nice and they play together.

Then, the man _____ (appear) again and _____ (give) the dog a teddy bear for it to bite. The pit-bull _____ (destroy) the Teddy bear and the kitten is surprised and scared.

Late at night, the Pit's owner _____ (kick) it out in the rain. The dog is very hurt and sad. It _____ (sleep) in its kennel. Kit tries to cheer it up and sleeps next to its friend and after a while Pit _____ (feel) better and _____ (start) _____ (play).

Suddenly, they hear footsteps! Pit's owner is _____ (come) out so Kit and Pit run away. They climb up the fence and run.

In the city, they are finally free! They play and play until they hear a whistle. Somebody is _____ (try) to be their friend! They accept and live happily, having found once and for all a family that loves them.

B) Did you enjoy the short film? Why? Why not?

Do you have any pets? Of what kind

