This is a Dragon puppet. I made it out of paper, card and straws. I used scissors, tape paint and a paintbrush too. First I made the head and the tail out of card, and I used paint decorate them. Then I made the body out of paper. Next I glued the head and tail to the body. Finally I stuck the straws to the head and tail with tape.

I made a mini-kite. I made it out of thin paper, straws and string. I used glue tape and scissors too. First I stuck the straws together with tape to make a cross shape. Next I cut a kite shape and a triangle out the paper. Then I glued the straws onto the paper, and I glued the triangle onto the middle of the kite. Finally I added the tail and the string.
