

PLANNING AN EVENT - VOCABULARY to take over something  an announcement  an emcee  a guest list room set-up  to stick to something  catering  to have someone in mind a list of the people coming to the event the people making and serving the food for an event a Master of Ceremonies: the person who presents and introduces speakers onto the stage arranging the furniture and decorations in a room for an event a message to tell people about something, e.g. an event to continue with a plan without changing it to do something that someone else was doing to be thinking of choosing someone for a job