

PAST PERFECT TENSE

After + past perfect tense (had V3), simple past tense (V2)

Before + simple past tense (V2), past perfect tense (had V3)

1. my sister had called me, I went out to pick her up from her friend's house.
2. the murderer killed the victim, he had stolen all his money in the safe.
3. The police arrivedone of the neighbours had phoned.
4. According to some historians, Mehmet II had killed his father he became the emperor.
5. I began to feel much better I had left the doctor's office.
6. She had finished watching all the seasons she went to bed.
7. Had you answered all the questions you left the exam hall?
8. I had pressed the 'enter' button, my account was immediately hacked.
9. The old man had spent all his moneyhe began begging for money in the street.
10. My old aunt began acting weirdly she had turned 70.