

Vocabulary test 3.1

Task 1. Complete the sentences using the words from the box. There are two extra words.

quaint shrieks approval crowning hive wares surplus distract bargain drift out of control weave gaze procession hustle and bustle satisfaction significance

1. a small box where BEES are kept _____
2. an amount of something that is more than what is needed or used _____
3. a line of people or vehicles moving slowly as part of a ceremony _____
4. the importance of an event, action etc _____
5. a feeling of happiness or pleasure because you have achieved something or got what you wanted _____
6. slowly lose the ability to keep things organised _____
7. something you buy cheaply or for less than its usual price _____.
8. things that are for sale, usually not in a shop _____.
9. unusual and attractive, especially in an old-fashioned way _____
10. awarding a title _____
11. to take someone's attention away from something _____
12. a sign when someone likes something or someone and thinks that they are good _____
13. a loud high sound made because you are frightened, excited, angry etc _____
14. busy, noisy activity _____ /15

Task 2. Give the synonyms to the words feature, wander, critics, confess, prolong, marvel, lined, purchase, explore, cope

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| admit _____ | deal _____ |
| aspect _____ | investigate _____ |
| judges _____ | buy _____ |
| be amazed by sth _____ | in a row _____ |
| to walk aimlessly _____ | to lengthen _____ /10 |

Task 3. Make the collocations

- | | | | |
|-------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|
| potential | supportive | stall | street |
| brass | public | handmade | special |
| _____ smile | _____ bands | _____ customers | _____ street |
| _____ occasions | _____ crafts | _____ exhibition | _____ holders |
| _____ exhibition | | | |

_____ procession _____ village _____ performers

Task 4. Complete the sentences using phrases from the ex.3.

1. Susan gave away some of her ceramics as gifts on_____.
2. The _____ were busy arranging their displays.
3. The _____ are an entertaining part of the Cuckoo Festival.
4. Susan's participating in the Downton fair was her first_____.
5. The Cuckoo Festival simply wouldn't be the same without the many dancers, brass bands and_____.
6. The couple with the stall next to Susan's gave her a_____.
7. Stalls lined both sides of the _____ on the morning of the fair.
8. Downton is a quiet little village that is full of strange customs and it enjoys its_____.
9. The writer and his wife followed a _____ to watch the crowning of the Cuckoo Princess.
10. A few _____ stopped by Susan's stall but they didn't buy anything.
11. Downton is normally a _____ but it attracts many visitors for the Cuckoo Fair.
12. On the day of the fair, there were many stalls selling_____.