

1. Leo spends five to six hours a day behind the [district / well / wheel] every day.
2. Places on the hot-air balloon ride are [filling up / efficient / hopping on] fast, so get your tickets now!
3. The most [solo / direct / original] route to the lake is to take Smith Street through the centre of the town.
4. The architect is confident the new building will be finished [ahead / before / quick] of time.
5. You need a special [pace / peace / pass] to enter the chemistry laboratory.
6. After you [hop off / fill up / hire] the train and exit the station, you can then take the 24 bus to Camden.
7. Hello everyone! My name is Paulo and I will [guide / wander / pace] you all over the city today.
8. I have never experienced a(n) [earthquake / trail / conservation] before.
9. The town has a very large shopping [district / guide / measurement].
10. He spent the whole afternoon [passing / wandering / guiding] around his new neighbourhood.
11. I can't stand this exhausting [direction / pass / pace] of life.
12. Computers have made many aspects of life faster and more [amazing / efficient / direct].
13. Although there was a lot of noise, he [filled up / hopped off / carried on] reading the paper.

14. Woodside has a warm and cosy [sushi / skyscraper / character] that is typical of small villages.
15. The [ordinary / further / original] price is expensive, but with the discount I think it's worth it.
16. [Delay / Excite / Taste] the sauce and tell me if it needs some more salt.
17. It will [catch / fill / depend] on the weather whether we go on a picnic this weekend.
18. There was a three-hour [voyage / parade / delay] before the plane took off.
19. Let's find the arrivals [board / pace / pass] and see when her plane is due to land.
20. I always travel [alarmed / confused / solo], because I like to do what I want without discussing it with anyone else.