

I'd like to go shopping

Robert: So, what do you plan to do?

Anna: Well, I'd like to go. I want to buy some gifts for my family. Where is the best place to go?

Robert: Well, would you like to buy?

Anna: I'm not sure, exactly. some nice marzipan for my Mum. And my Dad would like some German wine. Is there a supermarket?

Robert: Yes, there is, but you should go to the market. It's an indoor market. It's open day. There are some great bakeries and a great delicatessen. You can buy some nice food there. It's better quality than the supermarket.

Anna: Okay, that sounds good. And I need something for my sister.

Robert: There is a jeweller's near the market. You will find some nice gifts there.

Anna: Oh yes, I remember it. Next to the florist's.

Robert: right.

Anna: Great. And is there a toy? I'd like to buy a game for my brother.

Robert: No, sorry, there aren't any toy shops here. But you can buy toys at Hauffman's. That's a department. It's in the centre of town.

Anna: Good idea, I'll try that. Oh, is there a pharmacy near? I need some sun cream.

Robert: Yes, there's a pharmacy at the end of this street, next to the post

Anna:

Robert: can you buy some things for me while you are in town?

Anna: What do you need?

Robert: Could you get some chicken for dinner tonight? There's a butcher's in the square at the end of the street. It's opposite the newsagent, where we went. And there's a greengrocer's there, as well. Can you buy some potatoes, some carrots and some apples?

Anna: No problem.

Robert: I'll give you some money. Ah - no, I don't have. I need to go to the bank. I can go there later.

Anna: Don't worry, I'll buy

Robert: you sure?

Anna: course.

Robert: very much!
