

1) Multiple choice.

- a) This term was really difficult. We had some/any/no/every difficult projects to do.
- b) Some/any/no/every people like cats, and some/any/no/every people like dogs.
- c) Some/any/no/every person in our family likes sunbathing.
- d) Are there some/any/no/every sweets left?
- e) Don't give him some/any/no/every cakes! He's already eaten 7!
- f) Some/any/no/every students are allowed to use mobile phones during the exam.
- g) Sorry, I have to go now, I have some/any/no/every time left.
- h) Some/any/no/every person that I met at this conference could speak Russian so now I have lots of contacts from my colleagues all over the world.

2) Multiple choice.

- a) I have never been somewhere/anywhere/nowhere/everywhere more beautiful than Spain.
  - b) He told me something/anything/nothing/everything interesting about his life.
  - c) Somebody/anybody/nobody/everybody needs a good friend.
  - d) After his parents asked him to leave he had somewhere/anywhere/nowhere/everywhere to live.
  - e) I told my parents something/anything/nothing/everything about my bad behaviour and they decided to punish me.
  - f) I guess I have already met him somewhere/anywhere/nowhere/everywhere. I remember his face.
  - g) Hi, have you heard something/anything/nothing/everything new about Charlie today?
  - h) I came in the room, but I could see somebody/anybody/nobody/everybody in it - everyone has gone home.
  - i) I am sure somebody/anybody/nobody/everybody is listening to us - we're alone in this room.
  - j) Somebody/anybody/nobody/everybody likes to eat ice-cream in the summer.
-
- b) I don't have _____ to wear. (any)
  - c) _____ knows where Harry has gone. (no)
  - d) There was _____ strange about that man. (some)
  - e) _____ loves a good film. (every)
  - f) He's so quiet and reserved. He can talk to _____ for the whole day. (no)
  - g) I haven't been _____. (any)
  - h) I have _____ new to read. (no)
  - i) I tend to try _____ new every day. (some)