

THE DAWN OF HOROLOGY

TASK 1: Read the text – Action 11, p61

TASK 2: True/False/Doesn't say

1 In Ancient Rome, the day hours were longer in summer.

2 The Romans didn't use units smaller than an hour.

3 Horologia were only used to track time during the day.

4 The Romans used a celestial body to tell the time.

5 The Romans didn't invent any timekeeping devices.

6 Timekeeping was important for regulating the military in Rome.

7 Time keeping devices from the Roman era still survive to the present day.

8 Some modern timekeeping terminology is based on Roman language.

TASK 3: Make up 2 questions to the text with no grammar and spelling mistakes.