

The Thirsty Crow

What animal is this?

- a) a bird
- b) a crow
- c) a toucan

What was the crow's problem?

- a) He was hungry.
- b) He was tired.
- c) He was thirsty.

What was he looking for?

- a) He was looking for candies.
- b) He was looking for water.
- c) He was looking for soda.

How did he feel when he found it? a) He felt excited.

b) He felt sad. c) He felt tired.

What was the problem with the bottle of water?

- a) It was empty (no water).
- b) He couldn't reach the water.
- c) The water tasted awful.

How did he solve the problem?

- a) He picked up pebbles and dropped them into the bottle.
- b) He broke the bottle.
- c) He didn't do anything.

What happened to the water in the bottle?

- a) It began to rise.
- b) It stayed the same.
- c) It was hot.

What happened at the end of the story?

- a) The crow was sad.
- b) The crow didn't drink.
- c) The crow drank the water and was not thirsty anymore.

