

USED TO

Open the brackets. Sometimes a negative or interrogative form is needed.

1. _____ (you/to live) in a flat when you were a child? – No, I didn't. I _____ (to live) in a semi-detached house.
2. On cold winter evenings, I _____ (to sit) on my windowsill reading a book.
3. I _____ (to love) peace and quiet but I love it now.
4. Our smoke alarm _____ (to go off) every night but we repaired it.
5. I _____ (to pay) the bills on time but I pay them on time now.
6. Our room _____ (to be) cozy but it is now.
7. I _____ (to commute) to work but now I live a stone's throw from my office.
8. Our landlord _____ (to live) with us but now he doesn't.
9. We _____ (to fall out) with Emily a lot but now our relationship is perfect.
10. I _____ (to go) grocery shopping with my mom but now we do it together.
11. I _____ (to be) late for school but now I am always on time.
12. He _____ (to eat) breakfast every day but now he doesn't skip it.
13. My cousins _____ (to have) a lie-in on Saturdays but now they get up early for work.
14. I _____ (to be) an only child but then my mom gave birth to triplets.
15. I _____ (to lock) the door but now I do to protect the house against break-ins.

