

Expressions with make

Chris Searle [redacted] on his pupils, because he helped them to [redacted] how they lived.

To publish Stepney Words, he [redacted] a local printer. The school governors did not approve of the book and soon after it came out, they [redacted] and had him dismissed. Although Searle eventually got his job back at the school, the other teachers there [redacted] to him and in the end he chose to leave the school.

make a start make a good impression make use of make X feelings known make X move make sense of

