

Irregular verbs puzzle 3 – /-t/

- a) Download this list of 100 irregular verbs.pdf
- b) Copy this list of verbs on a piece of paper. They all have one thing in common, and they all have some things which are different from others:
- bend – bring – build – burn – buy – catch – dream – feel – fight – keep – learn – leave – lend – lose – mean – seek – send – sleep – smell – spend – teach – think – weep
- c) Use your piece of paper to classify them in 5 groups with the same type of irregularity, and one group with the rest.
- d) Now write the three forms of each verb IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER inside each group, and fill in the gaps in the example sentences with the correct form of one of the irregular verbs.

Count the number of verbs in each group and use the examples to help you find out the chart where you have to write them.

Group 1:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			He was so strong he an iron bar.
			This house was ten years ago.
			Could you me a pound, please?
			I have ten Christmas cards today.
			I too much on clothes last year.

Group 2:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			Don't forget to some wine!
			We have a flat-screen TV.
			We must injustice everywhere.
			Immigrants a better life.
			I haven't much about that.

Group 3:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			I _____ a cold draft; I closed the door.
			I usually _____ eggs in the fridge.
			The baby's _____ .
			Last Monday it _____ all night.

Group 4:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
	ed /	ed /	The child _____ a finger when he was playing with the candle.
	ed /	ed /	Last night I _____ I was rich.
	ed /	ed /	I _____ to swim on my own.
	ed /	ed /	It _____ of gas, so I opened a window.

Group 5:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			You will _____ cold, put on a coat!
			My father _____ me to ride a bike.

Rest:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			Don't _____ that on the sofa, please.
			Oh, no, I've _____ my diary.
			What do you _____ , it's big? It's tiny!