

Comparons :

- 1 – I will phone you during the afternoon.
- 2 – I was on the phone with him for half an hour.
- 3 – I usually stay here for two weeks.
- 4 – I usually stay here during the summer.

Conclusions:

- « for » et « during » permettent d'introduire un complément de
- « » répond à la question « When ? » et permet donc d'exprimer la de l'action.
- « » répond à la question « How long ? » et permet donc d'exprimer la de l'action.

Exercice :

Compléter avec « for » ou bien « during »

- 1 – She lived in London three years her childhood.
- 2 – I don't do much sport the school year.
- 3 – I was angry so I didn't speak to her three days.
- 4 – They met their internship in Australia. (* un stage)
- 5 – They were married only 2 years the second world war.
- 6 – The shop closes a weekwinter.
- 7 – I woke up three times the night.
- 8 - He slept 20 hours !
- 9 – Sophie phoned me the meal.
- 10 – He was exhausted so he fell asleep the lesson.