

1. The Jordans are going on a two-week [tour operator / package tour / workout] to Austria.
2. The entry exams take place in July, [when / as / while] lessons start in October.
3. One of the [benefits / baggages / proceeds] of exercise is that it keeps you in great shape.
4. Look at the [deals / tours / scales] they have on trainers at the moment. Didn't you need a new pair?
5. The doctor gave Anna some medicine to take the pain [out / away / off].
6. The school's sports programme [involves / arranges / delays] many activities.
7. Fashion changes. [For instance / On the whole / On the one hand], watches are much bigger now.
8. It took us a few days to [work out / take away / hand over] how the transport system worked and where to buy tickets.
9. Jackie always travels alone so she can have [smog / control / pump] over what she does and where she goes.
10. If you book early, you are more [highly / likely / anxious] to get a better price for your ticket.
11. On the [other hand / whole / all], we had a great time on our holiday. It was so relaxing.
12. [On the other hand / For instance / To sum up], the meeting was a complete success.
13. [But / While / In conclusion], I want to thank you for everything.
14. [Whereas / All in all / On the one hand] the meeting was helpful for all of us.

15. Taking everything into [recommendation / consideration / introduction], I think there are more advantages to travelling with friends than travelling alone.

16. Carla moved into her own flat when she finished school. She's very [independent / aggressive / inconvenient].

17. My [tour operator / package tour / guided tour] said that the best time to visit Madrid is in the spring.

18. On the [one / other / another] hand, taking the bus is cheaper than going by car, but on the other hand it takes longer.

19. You are probably right about the price. On the [other / one / second] hand, it is a very quiet neighbourhood.

20. At the lake, they [give / take / hire] out boats at $5 per hour.