

Module 5

p. 64-65

1. What's your [match / destruction / attitude] towards animal rights?
2. The guests at the hotel are [perfectly / mostly / visually] Spanish.
3. Steve arrived just [in / at / by] time for dinner.
4. Your answer was [virtual / defended / incorrect]. Try again!
5. The elephant [defended / matched / destroyed] her baby from the hungry lion.
6. When I put on the [goggles / attitude / effects], I felt like I really was skiing down the tallest mountain at a dangerous speed.
7. Our teacher's beliefs had a very powerful [effect / vision / force] on us.
8. They [joined / matched / defended] their businesses to create the largest shopping centre in the world.
9. You should tell her the truth, as it's only a [force / matter / match] of time before she notices that it's broken.
10. The [superhero / villain / visual reality] of this film is the one in the black suit and the terrifying yellow eyes!
11. I'm sad because I don't want our holiday to [come to an end / for all I know / be upside down].
12. Any sudden [battle / movement / pavement] can set off the alarm.
13. Mary was [upside down / obvious / unable] to attend the meeting, as she had to study for her exams.

14. The painting is so [obvious / sudden / realistic]; it looks like a photograph.
15. [For all / For everything / For what] I knew, the mechanics were telling me the truth about my car.
16. Look! The roller coaster just did a [lift / loop / fight]. Mandy looks a little sick!
17. It was [obvious / realistic / match] that Lao was tired, as he fell asleep during the lesson.
18. [Come on / Slow down / Pull] a bit; I think we've just passed Eric's place.
19. I like reading books because for a short time I escape [vision / reality / perfectly].
20. How are we going to climb such a(n) [steep / attacked / realistic] hill?