

p. 68-69

1. There was a lot of [cheer / clap / excitement] in the classroom, as we waited to hear who had won the competition.
2. My favourite singer has brought out a new [venue / live / album].
3. They found the perfect [cheer / hit / venue] for the concert.
4. The energetic music got faster and faster and [made / clapped / drove] the crowd wild.
5. I shouldn't have gone to the opera with Jane, because I was [bored out of my mind / on top of the world / over the moon].
6. Justine prefers [casual / live / thrilled] clothes for the office.
7. The kids are [getting a kick out / thrilled to bits / getting on my nerves], because they are going to Spain for two weeks.
8. The students had [a pain in the neck / driven him wild / a whale of a time] on their school trip to the zoo.
9. Suzie made [excitement / my day / my nerves] when she offered to do the shopping for me.
10. Paris is a(n) [excitement / hit / lively] city with lots of different places to visit.
11. I know all the [melody / venues / lyrics] of his songs. He's my favourite singer.
12. Dug gets [a kick out of / on my nerves / over the moon] making model planes in his spare time.
13. After I won the science competition, I was [on top of the moon / on top of the world / excitement].

14. The book festival will either be outdoors or in the youth centre, [driving me wild / depending on / blown away] the weather.
15. The [audience / venue / interaction] between the performer and the fans was amazing.
16. Shopping with my sister [drives me away / makes my day / drives me up the wall]. It takes her too long to decide what she wants to buy.
17. When we reached the mountain peak, we were [blown away / over the moon / a pain in the neck] by the incredible view.
18. The [lyrics / melody / casual] the flute plays is sad and beautiful, and it makes the whole song more interesting.
19. The audience [clapped / hit / lively] at the end of Leo's performance.
20. My little brother always leaves a mess in the living room. He is such a(n) [whale of a time / interaction / pain in the neck]!