

p. 72-73

1. The main [poetry / nature / setting] of this book is the English countryside and two villages there back in the 19th century.
2. What are the [audience / readers / individuals] saying about the book?
3. The buyers are [aware of / set in / taking place] the fact that their house is old and needs repair.
4. I like reading [appealing / poetry / trails] in my spare time.
5. The two sisters are very [usual / alike / likely].
6. I am really [satisfied with / set in / aware of] my new bicycle. I ride it all the time.
7. I read many good [landfills / reviews / reuse] about this documentary and I really want to watch it.
8. She seems [antisocial / socializing / natural] when you first meet her, but that is only because she is shy.
9. How many [movements / contestants / receptionists] take part in the competition?
10. Harry likes watching [commercials / smog / goggles] on TV.
11. He was speaking so fast I couldn't [catch / move / grab] everything he was saying.
12. The game was definitely [affected by / followed / against] the rain. It started half an hour late and it had to be stopped three times.
13. Bungee jumping gives people a(n) [poetry / commercial / adrenaline rush].
14. Make sure you [complete / compete / fight] all the spots on the application form.

15. Watching TV is one of the most [passive / individual / catchy] forms of entertainment, as it doesn't require much thought at all.

16. You should follow the [rules / contestants / extinction] while at the amusement park, because they are there for your safety.

17. I'm sorry but I didn't [complete / get / defend] what you were saying. English is not my first language, you know.

18. John is [impolite / immature / fearless] and likes to take part in extreme sports.

19. What a(n) [fearless / thrill / humankind]! It was the best adventure of my life.

20. The TV channel is [aggressive / following / broadcasting] a special programme at 20.00.