

p. 74-75

1. I watch all the films Grace Bennett [locates / directs / stars] in, because I think she is a great actress.
2. The restaurant is known for its [fearless / outstanding / passive] selection of desserts.
3. I am surprised by how boring that film was. The [trailer / plot / director] made it seem so exciting.
4. We all have to help save the planet for the good of [humanity / filmgoers / audiences].
5. We can't [follow / trail / locate] the beach on our map. Where is it?
6. Entering a world of virtual reality is often described as a(n) [action-packed / special effects / mind-blowing] experience.
7. There were some [ending / plot / hilarious] scenes in the film.
8. James is a very famous director who has produced many [blockbuster / predictable / outstanding] films.
9. Maggie is the name of the [filmgoer / heroine / plot] in the story.
10. [Whoever / Whenever / Whichever] wants to can come with us to the museum.
11. It was a(n) [action-packed / mind-blowing / special effects] holiday, full of adventure.
12. The film was so exciting and had so many surprises that we were [on the edge of our seats / a box-office hit / nothing special] the whole time.
13. Children shouldn't watch films with [suspense / violent / amusing] scenes.
14. 'Alice in Wonderland' is an English [classic / appeal / hit].

15. It's a wonderful performance! You shouldn't [be on the edge of your seat / be satisfied with it / miss it for the world]!

16. Jazz music doesn't [appeal / follow / direct] to Jim.

17. I knew we had made a great film, but I didn't expect it would be a [box-office hit / classic / predictable].

18. The show was really [violent / amusing / fearless] and we all laughed throughout it.

19. Oh, tell me what happens next. I can't stand the [appeal / suspense / action]!

20. We saw many [immature / unlikely / unusual] fish when we went scuba diving.