

p. 78-79

1. It's my own [bakery / rise / fault] for getting locked out of the house.
2. The alarm [went off / checked out / was in line] when he touched the car.
3. The doctor told him that he should [increase / determine / put up with] the amount of water he drank every day.
4. Can you [turn up / queue / let down] the volume, please? I can't hear anything.
5. I [increased / put up with / sat up] in my bed so I could see what was happening outside my window.
6. At $100, the deal on this smartphone is great [sales / purchase / value for money].
7. Will you [determine / rise / accompany] me to my doctor's appointment this afternoon?
8. We are [determined / forward / let down] to get good marks in the test, so we are studying a lot.
9. Tom couldn't [put up with / go off / stay put] the customer's bad behaviour and he called his manager.
10. [Step on / Discount / Pick] a colour to paint the walls with.
11. Scott [stepped on / limited / turned up] my foot, but he didn't apologise.
12. Is baby Mandy [crawling / bruising / turning up] yet?
13. I [checked out / queued / accompanied] the new computer program. It looks good.
14. Could everyone who wants to pay by credit card please [increase / form / discount] a queue here?

15. I usually buy things during the January [purchases / rises / sales].
16. That sofa we bought was a great [bargain / sale / disaster]. We only paid $90!
17. We found a restaurant that [delivers / purchases / forms] food to our office.
18. The shop [forward / clearly / highly] doesn't have enough tills. I've been waiting in this queue for half an hour already.
19. It was very expensive and difficult to find, but I finally [got my hands on / stepped on / lost my balance] an original Louis Armstrong album from the 1920s.
20. Stan [lost his balance / was let down / turned up] as he was trying to get the ball.