

p. 80-81

1. Can you please turn [up / down / in] the radio? I'm trying to study.
2. There's a(n) [dairy product / exchange / cash machine] outside the supermarket. Perhaps we can take money from there.
3. Glen works as a(n) [cashier / offer / receipt] at the supermarket.
4. Next year the price of bread will [go up / turn up / be worth].
5. Bary's come [down with / up with / over] the flu as well. He's in bed with a temperature.
6. I just got the phone [bill / receipt / price tag] for this month. I don't know where I'm going to find that much money.
7. Although he was invited, he never [went up / went down / turned up] at the get-together.
8. The Earth's natural resources will be [going up / used up / turned down] in the near future.
9. Jack's dream was to become a pilot, but he [ended up / turned up / used up] being a gardener.
10. I've got two ten-euro [receipts / notes / bills] in my pocket.
11. [Change / Exchange / Look out for] large discounts on electronics at the end of January during the sales.
12. When you buy something, don't forget to ask for the [bill / note / receipt].
13. The queue at the [bill / till / cashier] was very long.
14. Could you repeat that? I didn't [get down / turn down / end up] the last two numbers.

15. How much [notes / exchange / change] did you get from a ten pound note?
16. Look at this [discount / offer / bill]! You get a free watch when you buy a smartphone.
17. I bought the car because the price was very [responsible / likely / reasonable].
18. James was offered a good job, but he turned it [over / up / down] as it involved travelling abroad.
19. I can't see the [till / bill / price tag]. How much is this?
20. They don't accept cheques. You have to pay in [cash / receipt / note].