

p. 94-95

1. Brandon is [documenting / installing / scrolling] the antivirus software on his PC right now.
2. You need to [press / key / undo] this button to turn the computer on.
3. I've [attached / shut down / pasted] the photos to this email. Can't you open them?
4. Don't [scroll / icon / delete] this file. I'm working on it!
5. I usually [shut / charge / press] my phone up while I'm sleeping so it's ready for the next day.
6. I find the old [username / restart / version] of the film much more interesting.
7. The coffee maker is out of [reach / order / sight]. Would you like some juice?
8. Are you out of [your mind / danger / control]? You can't go swimming in this weather!
9. Get somebody tall to help you get the jar from the top shelf. It is out of your [reach / breath / work].
10. Donna hasn't realised how out of [breath / shape / her mind] she was until she went for a run. She ended up walking most of the way.
11. Buying an expensive car right now is out of the [sight / control / question].
12. Norman's new film is [based on / in use / out of sight] a book.
13. Chris is very efficient and can [be based on / account / cope with] his workload.
14. You can [restart / set up / set] your email address really quickly and it's free too.
15. A lot of [scientific / username / version] research is being done to find out whether there is life on other planets.

16. Something is wrong with my Wi-Fi connection. I don't have [wireless / scientific / attached] Internet.

17. Tes was out of [breath / shape / order] after she had run around the block a couple of times.

18. Although parents try their best to keep their kids safe and out of [control / sight / danger], they cannot control everything that happens.

19. Do you have an email [account / username / icon]?

20. If something on your computer isn't working, [coping with / reusing / restarting] it often solves the problem.