

p. 116-117

1. There's a book [informative / report / promotion] at Tiger Books today.
2. The [aim / widely / shift] of the organization is to show people how to protect the environment.
3. This book is [fairly / shifted / widely] read, not only by teenagers, but by adults too.
4. There has been a [shift / report / serving] in public opinion away from the traditional attitudes.
5. It's a very [informative / misleading / misbehaved] website. It will tell you a lot about travelling in Asia.
6. It's not always a good idea to take advice from sites on the Internet. For serious problems, you should see a [professional / nutritionist / flyer].
7. Jake [raised / promoted / requested] an interview with the famous athlete.
8. The conservation group [raises awareness / is essential / promotes] of global warming.
9. Can you please [flyer / hand out / request] the books to the rest of the class?
10. The teacher tried to [request / hand out / motivate] the students to study hard.