What can you do with cheese?

There aren't only one or two great recipes with cheese – there are hundreds! My favourite isn't a recipe with English cheese, it's with brie, a kind of French cheese. The recipe isn't very good for you so don't eat it every day!

The ingredients are 200g of brie, three slices of bread, an egg, some oil and some salt and pepper. First, cut up the bread into very small pieces and bake them for five minutes. Beat the egg in a bowl and add some salt and pepper. Then cut up the brie into long, thin slices and put them one by one into the egg. Put the brie slices into the bread so there is bread all over the brie. Fry the brie, bread and egg in some oil so they are brown on both sides and you can eat them with ketchup – delicious!

Some other great recipes are cheese on toast, pasta with cheese sauce and pizzas covered in lots of your favourite cheese. Like any recipe with cheese, they have got lots of calories, but the taste is wonderful!
