

Lemon Art: French style

Pre - Watching

- Label the pictures

measure float resort juice creation fireworks celebrate picturesque

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

While - Watching

- True or False

- When life gives you lemonade, make lemons.
True False
- Menton is a picturesque resort high in the mountains.
True False
- Menton is in the east of France.
True False
- The lemon festival takes place in winter and spring.
True False
- The festival goes on four long weeks.
True False
- More than 200,000 people visit this festival annually.

- True False
7. Artists use lemons, oranges and bananas to create their statues.
True False
8. Some statues are very huge - more than 10 kilometers high.
True False
9. People can buy fresh citrus at Citrus Exposition every day.
True False
10. The Parade of Golden Fruit takes place at weekend.
True False
11. Visitors can enjoy colourful fireworks displays on Tuesdays.
True False
12. Citrus fruit contain a lot of vitamin C.
True False

After – Watching

• Answer the questions

- 1) What can people make from lemons?
- 2) What is Manton in France famous for?
- 3) How long does the lemon festival last?
- 4) How many tons of citrus do artists use annually?
- 5) How many people does the festival attracts?
- 6) What can people do on weekdays?
- 7) What can they see at weekends?
- 8) What happens on Thursdays?
- 9) How often do the themes change?
- 10) How can people book tickets?

