

Week 3

Primary 3/4

STORY STRUCTURE:

INTRODUCTION

PART 2

SMART STUDENT

Personification (Give human qualities)

Garett's golden lucky pen winked at me under the blaring fluorescent lights. The wink felt like a smirk, as if, it too was mocking at me for not studying for the test.

Use personification

---

---

WRITE A FORESHADOW

The test commenced and with a sly smile, I flipped through the paper, knowing well, I was going to copy my way to success.

Write a foreshadow

---

---

---

KEYS TO A GOOD INTRODUCTION

CLEAR IDEA OF WHERE YOUR CHARACTER IS

- Weather
- Places

- Personification
- similes
- metaphors

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

-Introduce all characters in the 1st paragraph.
Never introduce them later!

- Personification
- similes
- metaphors

ENDING WITH A FORESHADOW

Topic: An act of irresponsibility

It was a beautiful day. The clouds were _____ dancing in the azure blue sky. My little sister Janet and I heading over to the mall to pick her the perfect birthday present. My little sister is a pain in the neck.

METAPHOR

_____

_____

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

As we ambled into the shopping centre, It was clearly packed like _____. Despite the crowd, I was SIMILE
confident that everything would go without a hitch.

_____

_____

_____

FORESHADOW

Topic: Cheating

WRITE AN INTRODUCTION

Large yellow writing area with a yellow border.

Topic: Fire

WRITE AN INTRODUCTION

A large, empty yellow box with a yellow textured border, intended for the student to write their introduction.