

EXERCISE 5 NEGATIVE AND FOCUS ADVERBS

GRAMMAR NOTES 2-3 Study the chart. Then complete each sentence with the adverb even, just, only in, or not only / but ... also and the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

Country	Has a military	Has required military service	Allows women to serve in the military	Drafts women to serve in the military	Allows women to serve in combat
Brazil	X		X		X
Canada	X		X		X
China	X	X	X	X
Costa Rica
Israel	X	X	X	X
Switzerland	X	X
The United States	X		X		X
Venezuela	X		X		X

Facts about military service in eight countries:

1. (there / be)

Only in Costa Rica is there no military.

2. (have)

Though officially neutral, Switzerland has a military.

3. (there / be)

Three countries have required military service.

4. (they / allow)

They allow women to serve in the military, but they don't allow them to serve in combat.

5. (men / be required)

Men are required to serve in combat in Brazil, Canada, the United States, and Venezuela.

6. (women / be required)

Women are required to do military service in Israel and China.

EXERCISE 6 HERE, THERE, AND SO

GRAMMAR NOTE 4 Complete the conversation with the correct forms of the words in parentheses.

ILHAN: How long have we been waiting for our stupid bus? Here comes another 44.
1. (come / here / another 44)

That's two 44s in the last half hour. I'm really getting tired of waiting.

PAVLINA: It's been a long time, but complaining about it won't make it get here any faster.

ILHAN: Yeah, you're probably right. But these buses! They're always late, and they're way too expensive. I think bus service should be free in the downtown area.

PAVLINA: It's not likely to change, but the chance of that happening is pretty slim.

ILHAN: Hey, look—There it is now. Finally!

(One minute passes.)

PAVLINA: Oh, no! It's not stopping. . . . It says "NOT IN SERVICE." It says "NOT IN SERVICE."

ILHAN: Hey, There's a taxi. Let's take that instead.
