

Five Friends

Five good friends went out to play.
It was a bright and sunny day.
One good friend said, "I can't stay."
Then, there were four friends left to play.

Four good friends went out to play.
It was a bright and sunny day.
One good friend said, "I can't stay."
Then, there were three friends left to play.

Three good friends went out to play.
It was a bright and sunny day.
One good friend said, "I can't stay."
Then, there were two friends left to play.

Two good friends went out to play.
It was a bright and sunny day.
One good friend said, "I can't stay."
Then, there was one friends left to play.

One good friend went out to play.
It was a bright and sunny day.
One good friend said, "I can't stay."
Then, there was no one left to play.

Let's talk about the story.

Answer these questions.

1. How many friends played together?

2. What happened while the friends were playing?

3. Tell something about the day.

4. Why do you think each one left?

5. If somebody invites you to play, would you?

6. If you're friends left you and you were alone, how would you feel?

7. If you had a quarrel with your friend, what would you do?
