

What is COVID-19?

Coronaviruses are viruses that 1. _____ 2. _____ infections. These can 3. _____ the 4. _____ to more serious diseases. COVID-19 is the disease caused by a new coronavirus. It was first 5. _____ in December 2019 in Wuhan City in China.

What is the incubation period?

The 6. _____ is 7. _____ at 2 to 14 days.

How does COVID-19 spread?

The virus can spread from person to person 8. _____ with an infected person. This is usually through contact with 9. _____ from an infected person's 10. _____. You can also get it from touching objects or 11. _____ that have cough or sneeze droplets from an infected person, and then touching your mouth or face.

What are the symptoms of COVID-19?

COVID-19 can cause 12. _____ symptoms including a runny nose, 13. _____, cough, and 14. _____. Symptoms can be more 15. _____ for some people and can lead to 16. _____ or breathing difficulties. 17. _____, the disease can be 18._____. Older people and people with 19._____ 20._____ appear to be more

21._____ of becoming 22._____ with the virus.

Who can get the virus?

People living or travelling in an area where the COVID-19 virus 23._____.

What is the treatment for COVID-19?

There is no 24._____ medicine 25._____ or treat
COVID-19. If you have mild symptoms, stay at home until 26._____. You should rest, sleep, keep warm and drink
27._____.

People who have severe symptoms may need 28._____ to help them breathe.