

FAME

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES. THERE IS ONE WORD MISSING IN EACH GAP.

Mason MacDonald was a contestant on the reality TV show.

Millions _____ people watched him and the other seven contestants as they tried to survive _____ the famous island _____ six weeks. Before he went _____ the island, good-looking Mason was a teacher _____ a school in Manchester. He shared a flat _____ two friends. However, in the last three years his life has changed a lot.

' _____ first it was really exciting,' he says. 'I did a lot of interviews _____ newspapers and celebrity magazines. People recognized me _____ the street and, I signed a lot _____ autographs. I went _____ a lot of parties and had a fantastic holiday _____ Australia, too. One Sunday morning someone knocked _____ my door. It was quite early and I was still _____ bed. I opened the door _____ my pyjamas and there was a photographer there. I was very angry, so I grabbed his camera and threw it _____ the street. They asked some questions and I paid _____ a new camera.'

After that, things became quieter, but Mason didn't want to go back _____ his life _____ Manchester. He's lived in London _____ two years now and has worked _____ a DJ for a radio station for over a year. He's still famous, but photographers haven't followed him _____ a long time. 'I've been very lucky,' he says. 'And I've really enjoyed my success.' What about the future? 'Well, my girlfriend and I are getting married _____ three months. I'm very happy _____ that. As for a job, I've enjoyed being a DJ, but _____ the future I'd really like to be a game show host _____ TV and write a book, too.'