The Costume Contest

The kids in Leroy's neighborhood are having a costume contest for Halloween. Leroy is very excited! He has never done a costume contest before. He wants to make a pirate costume. Leroy's brother decided to make a fireman costume. On Friday, their mom took them to "Home Fabrics" to get the supplies that they needed to make their costumes. On Sunday, some of their friends are coming over to their house. The kids are going to eat pizza and make their costumes together. Leroy and his brother have been busy all day setting up the tables and chairs for their friends. They are ready for the fun to begin!
