

A news report: a bank robbery

Some of the verbs are missing. Can you fill in the gaps with the verbs given in the right tense? (Use Present or Past Tenses)

steal	recover	interview	take place	rush
escape	arrest	spend	shoot	arrive

Yesterday afternoon just before closing time, a gang of robbers _____ into the King Street branch of United Bank and _____ an estimated $5,000,000 along with valuables from safe deposit boxes. Eye witnesses saw four men enter the building. They carried hand guns and wore stocking masks over their faces.

When a security guard tried to stop the men, they _____ him. The guard _____ in the Queen Elizabeth Hospital. The gang then forced the customers and staff to lie on the floor while the robbery _____.

Police _____ within ten minutes but so far have little information to work on. The men _____ in a in a stolen blue Toyota which police later found in a back street about two kilometers from the bank.

After the robbery, the police _____ all of the staff and customers at the bank so that they could get a description of the men. The following day they _____ Ronnie in a bar where he _____ a lot of money. They handcuffed him, so he couldn't run away, and took him to the police station where Detective Inspector Chan asked him a lot of questions.