

Neithernor – Either.....or – Both.....an

1. My sister doesn't like watching football. I don't like watching it too.
2. Jim is a perfect drum-player. His friend Tim also plays drums very well.
3. You can do the washing up, or I can do it as well.
4. We don't go out very often these days. Our neighbours don't go out often as well.
5. If you want to read something interesting you can choose a science fiction book or a historical novel.
6. Jane decided not to go to school on Friday. Erika made up her mind not to attend the school on Friday, too.
7. Our class and their class want to win the competition.
8. Michael hasn't got any positive grades this week. Jacob has been given no good grades as well.