ESLFLYWORKSHEETS

Test on conditional sentences type (1 & 2)

1. Is it First Conditional, Second conditional or neither? Choose the correct answer.

1) If I had enough time, I'd come to visit you.

2) I will go to Finland next summer.

3) What will you do if you have finished your exercise?

4) I wouldn't do that if I were you.

5) OK, I'll do it.

2. Fill in the gaps with will, won't, would or wouldn't.

1) I love working. If I didn't have a job, I soon get bored.

2) Paul be really angry if you don't tell him the truth.

3) If you work hard, you fail your exams.

4) If Mr Johnson drove really fast, the police stop him.

5) If she weren't clever, she be a good writer.

3. Choose the right answer and write A, B, C or D in the gap.

1) If I had time, I shopping with you. But unfortunately I'm really busy right now.

A go B will go C would go

2) If you speak English, you along with them perfectly.

A get B will get C would get

3) If my granny to see us, we'll go to the zoo.

A come B comes C will come D came

4) Nobody would do it if I it. A not do B don't do C didn't do

5) You won't see that film if you over 15 years old. A aren't B won't be C isn't

4. Use the correct tense to complete the sentences.

1) If you (study) a lot, you (become) smarter.

2) If I (meet) a famous pop star one day, I (ask) him/her some questions.

3) You (not have) any ice cream if you (not eat) your vegetables.

4) My sister (not go) camping tomorrow if it (rain).

5) If I (know) the answer, I (tell) you. But I don't have any idea what the answer might be.